About me

After my studies in business administration, I graduated in Business Administration with a specialisation in corporate finance at the Bocconi University in Milan. Since 2008 I have been a partner and director of Fiduciaria Mega in Lugano. In the course of my professional career I have mainly dealt with tax, administrative and management aspects related to international taxation (with particular reference to the European and Italian context) and partly to Swiss taxation. I also assist natural and legal persons in relocation, personnel management and administration, real estate management and I am responsible for anti-money laundering aspects and related internal training. Finally, I have extensive experience in client relations and business process management.
